Found & Baker Properties – Real estate agent - Tervuren / Kraainem Copy

What about the job?

This is not your ordinary broker. At Found & Baker, we go further. As the person in charge of rental, you are knowledgeable and approach the market from a sophisticated angle. You have a feel for finishing and design. You are driven, results-oriented, discrete and exude natural confidence. Your tasks include prospecting, intake as well as leasing and follow-up of exclusive real estate. Following up existing files and continuously identifying new opportunities is in your DNA. Just like giving valid and applicable advice.

What do we expect?

- Our Found & Baker core competencies are no strangers to you: persuasive | sophisticated | inquisitive | social. Indeed, these skills allow you to build lasting relationships with clients.
- You are result-oriented.
- You are a real team player.
- You have our Found & Baker skills: convincing, sophisticated, eager to learn and social. These skills allow you to build a lasting relationship with the client.
- Combining different clients and cases does not scare you and you guide your network to find their dream house/renovation project.
- You ensure an excellent customer experience and guide customers from start to finish.
- You have no 9-to-5 mentality and working on Saturdays is a must.

What's in it for me?

- An attractive salary supplemented with extra-legal benefits.
- A very close and dynamic team where humour is never far away.
- A permanent contract, full time.
- Regular teambuildings in settings to dream away at.
- Freedom and flexibility.
